

Final Conference Of SLM Project

Date 7/10/2019

The final conference of ILHAM project was held on Monday 7th October 2019 at Flamenco hotel, Zamalek, Egypt. All partners from Italy, Greece, Egypt have participated in the final conference. Teachers and students from Zagazig, Cairo, Alexandria and Damanhur universities have attended the conference. The proceedings of the final conference included a short presentation given by the project coordinator, followed by different presentations given by PIs of the four Egyptian universities. The presentation of Zagazig university PI showed what was achieved during the project period and what were the challenges that should have been faced. A valuable contribution was presented by an external European auditor during the conference proceedings.

